

DACAC Human Relations Champion Awards Proposal

Award description: These two awards may be presented at the DACAC annual conference to one DACAC member in SD & one in ND who reflect the values of DACAC-Human Relations:

A DACAC champion is one who promotes awareness and sensitivity to the issues of culture, human rights, gender, age and other differences. A Champion also advocates for and heightens awareness and respect for differences while fostering and supporting a culture of respect and care.

Nominations are accepted from members who answer the following questions in support of potential “HR Champions.”

Name & Institution of the nominator: _____

Name & Institution of the nominee: _____

Please provide specific descriptions for of the nominee and his/her experiences and background regarding those areas below that apply (Use extra sheets if necessary):

1. Sensitivity to issues of culture
2. Sensitivity to issues of human rights
3. Sensitivity to issues of gender
4. Sensitivity to issues of age
5. Sensitivity to issues of “other differences.”

Describe the nominee’s advocacy for the heightening of awareness and respect for differences while fostering and supporting a culture of respect and care. (Use new sheet if needed.)